“ I appreciate Sister Barbara Curtsinger's beautiful Christian life. When I would see her and Brother Davis, they were so kind and courteous to me. A couple that lives for the Lord gives other Christians hope and strength and causes unsaved people to want to be a Christian too. I so wish I could attend her home going but my health won't allow it. What comfort it must be to know she is now with the Lord, as the Bible teaches. God bless her family. Mourning is human but the Bible says we don't mourn as those who have no hope. We can look forward to seeing one another again where we'll know as we are known. May God give comfort to you, Brother Davis, Sharon, Donna, and the rest of your family.
