“ He always was so nice to me when he came into my work. He'd stop by Anchor to say hello, ask how my furbabies were and also me. He talked about his daughter and I could tell how much he loved her and was so proud of her. He kept telling me he was going to take her and me out to dinner cause he thought we'd become great friends with our passion for animals. We never got to do that but if his daughter sees this....id still love to get to know you. Your dad was adamant abiotus doing great work together helping animals. Lol. Oh sweetie I'm so sorry for your loss. Your dad was a sweet man. Kind. Respectful too!!!! And always made me feel "seen". Im not from here and had bad experiences with the people in KY. He was one of tye people (customers) that made mw finally feel welcomed here, feel seen, cared about and just part of the community. That made me feel special. Im so serious. I've missed seeing all those who came by Anchor and would chit-chat. Billy is one of those people. His smile always warmed my heart. RIP Billy. 💔😭
