“ I best memories of Dano was his hospitality and welcoming nature. Magnificent cook, if you were at his home he was preparing a meal for you. Always offered a place to stay when you were in town for a visit with a very musical atmosphere. People remember you not for what you accomplished in this world but for how you treated them. Rest in peace Dano, I wish we could have chatted more. Your pal Kenny.

“ My thoughts and prayers for Danny's family as you all go through this difficult time of loss. Me and Danny had a lot of talks about music and guitars. He made it to his 60th birthday and I know he's no longer in pain now.

May God Bless,
Susan Bradshaw
