

Gloria Layne Popplewell

February 10, 1941 - November 4, 2016

Gloria Layne Popplewell, 75, of Jamestown, KY, passed away on Fri. Nov.4th at her home in Jamestown, KY.

She was born in Jamestown, KY on Feb. 10, 1941, a daughter of the late Della Rae(Bernard) and William Arvester Dabney.

She was a retired Dental Office manager and a member of the Jamestown Christian Church.

She worked in the Popplewell Family Dentistry office for more than 40 years, alongside her husband.

The greatest love of her life was her family, and their wellbeing was her greatest interest in life. She always gave them more than 100%. She believed in education and continuously strived to learn about everything.

She directed the Duplicate Bridge Club and taught bridge lessons to many.

She supported the library and was an avid reader. Throughout life, she enjoyed fishing, and baking. Gloria lived with Type 1 diabetes for 62 years and received a Presidential Medal for living with Type 1 diabetes for over 50 years.

Gloria Layne is survived by husband Dr. H.K. Popplewell, DMD

son Dr. H. James (Johnna) Popplewell, DMD

daughter Sandra F. Popplewell, NP

a brother, 4 grandchildren and 6 great grandchildren also survive.

A Memorial Service for Gloria Layne Popplewell will be held at H.E. Pruitt Memory Chapel in Jamestown, KY on Thur. Nov.10, 2016, 6:00pm

Friends may visit Thur. Nov, 10th, from 2:00 till 6:00pm at the funeral home. Family request memorial donations to the Jamestown Christian Church or the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation and can be made at the funeral home.

“ The Phelps Family & the Popplewell Family have been close for decades.

Judy, my grandmother, will forever miss her bridge partner; however, she will always cherish their many memories of playing duplicate together, owning boats together, and the Girls Weekend down on Lake Cumberland.

I shall always associate Gloria's date cookies with the holidays. They were my very favorite and she knew that; not a holiday passed without her sending many to me.
