“ I loved my God mother so much weather I was running from trouble or running from myself she always welcome me in her home I probably over stayed my welcome with my drinking but it just goes to show you the power of prayer. I am clean and sober today because the love and support of a nephew that didn't deserve it but today God has given me grace and faith and hope that one day I will be blessed to see her and Glen again singing and shouting praise God praise God praise God almighty. See you again soon love Jeffrey
