“ Bren, I just saw this! I am so sorry. I know the bond you and her had :(
It sure has been an uphill battle for her so long. I know you have been by her side the whole time. It's hard to give up a fellow animal lover, and she sure was! We were born with a heart for them. Just remember her journey is over, ours is yet to come. We will see her again, if we hold out for the blessed hope that Jesus has promised us. I love you and will be in touch. Jerry, I am so sorry to you too and the rest of the family :( With love Star

“ Jerry, Jordan, Samantha, Brenda and Barbara,

Ken and I are so sorry for your loss. As I was sitting here for a couple of days, trying to come to terms with Jen's passing I realized that Jen would say to me "put those tears away" then I realized that we are here on earth mourning, crying, hurting, that you aren't here. What I hope that gave me peace and will give you some peace is knowing what a great and glorious reunion that Jen is experiencing right now, with the Lord, her Dad, Mom and brother Randy. As Jen called him Bud!

So please let's not cry to much because I know my sweet and dear friend is so happy and is in no pain.

I will miss our 2 to 3 hour phone calls. All the laughs, tears, joys and fun we had on those phone calls. Another thing is she loved her husband, Jerry so much and her son Jordan and DIL, they were her world and Jen had a very special bond with her sister, Brenda. We ALWAYS talked about our families.

Jen and I have been friends for over 20 years and I will cherish that forever.

We also bonded over crafts and collecting primitive items and decor.

Jen,

Ken and I will see you again, just not yet. Love you dearly. Ken and Tricia 🌸💕💕
