“ Uncle Bernard, I miss you already, the world is a lot less interesting now, but I know you are with family now. Memories... I have a thousand of them, we had some times you and I. I moved you cross-country three times, each trip more interesting than the last. I remember when I was about 8 years old, Uncle Darwin put you in an old Pontiac race car and said good luck. The field lapped you in three laps, Uncle Darwin spun you out in the short turn and on the back stretch. Bob Fields spun you in the short turn, You always claimed the right rear spring was broken... Mt. Lawn raceway was fun that day. I remember driving by your house in New Castle on a hot, humid day and you were sitting on the front grass in the heat. You said you locked your keys in the house and had been out there an hour. I checked the doors and the front door was unlocked, we got a laugh out of that one. I remember Grandpa Blankenship signed for three cars for you in the summer of your 16th year, you rolled two over and totalled the convertible Pontiac Tempest, you thought you were A.J. Foyt. I remember that old Pontiac always overheated and in the middle of winter in Indiana Uncle Darwin connected the upper and lower radiator hoses and took the thermostat out. You drove that convertible around all winter and it never would warm up, you froze to death in that old car. I am proud to be your Nephew Uncle Bernard. I have many many more memories of you that I will hold dear to my heart. I miss you Uncle but surely, I will see you soon. I will write more later, I love you... Michael Delk
