“ Our hearts go out to Paul and the girls and to Jessica's family in Somerset. There aren't any words to comfort you at your time of loss. Jessica although she had deep issues was such a sweet , endearing, kindhearted, thoughtful, down to earth person. My sister and I spent several weeks in the early Spring with Jessica, and saw a side of innocence and insecurity. A person that wanted to be a good moma to her daughters, but didn't know how, was sorry for the agony she was inflicting on Paul. She spoke of her mother and her sisters and brother. Jessica was a good person, she was sweet and the devil had to much control. Well, Jessica has done her time with her demons. Her personal hell is over and May God let her Rest In Peace
