“ John sneaking into the Gault House in Louisville. Us Casey county boys were up there with then Casey coach Sam Marple, Darren Summers, and current coach Steve Stonebraker. John drives from Lexington to Louisville at about 3 in the morning, gets to the hotel at maybe 4:30 or 5. Somehow he talks the folks at this big massive hotel to give him a card key! I mean he could have been ANYBODY, could've killed us all. Lol. He sneaks in our room and I wake up to this massive man just doing elbow drops and "butt flops" on my back then run in and jump in bed with Stoney or Summers. Lol. I think he maybe talked to those guys for 15 to 30 minutes and everyone went to bed. He came all the way from Lexington just to see his friends (Darren and Stonebraker), for maybe 15 to 30 minutes to talk. Lol. I didn't know John real well like they did, but I got to know him more over the years. I think if you asked this guy to drive 100 miles just to drink a beer, have a laugh, he'd do that anytime you would call. RIP John, I wish we had got to hang out more.

*Life is just a stepping-stone
A pause before we make it home
A simple place to rest and be,
Until we reach eternity.
Everyone has a life journey,
A path to take with lots to see
God guides our steps along the way,
But we were never meant to stay.*

*Our final destination is a place
Filled with love, His majesty and grace.
Today we celebrate the life of a loved one
Who has gone before us, the race he has won.
His journey has now ended,
His spirit has ascended
Claiming the great reward
With Jesus, our Lord.*

*Shared a bunch of memories with you that I will always cherish
God speed buddy rest easy love ya*

Big John as I knowed him, was a great friend! John, Nate the great, mckinley, diamond dave, myself and my brother had some great times together. We lost contact over the years, but he was like a brother. RIP Big John and Nate the great, Way to early boys!

*I was just floored by the news. Johnny was one of the funniest, sweetest, caring, & most encouraging guys I have ever known. I wish we could have had much more many times together, my dear friend.
Rest In Peace, big pimpin 🥹*
