“ On Monday our sons tombstone was placed beside yours where I know he would've wanted it. Please take care of him up there for me and watch over our family until we are all joined again. I love and miss you both more than words could ever say. Not a day goes by that I don't think of y'all and the tears roll down my cheek. With all my love my dear son and husband!

“ I hope you had a very Merry Christmas with your family up in heaven honey.....Words can't express how much you are missed here on earth. I know you're pain free now, but the pain in my heart will never fully go away.....I'll see you someday, but until then, you hold the fort down in heaven honey, and I'll hold the fort down here on earth.....I'll always love you my dear husband!!

“ This past year has been a very hard, long, lonely, lost year without you here with me. I've had to learn to take care of myself and our kids without you. It's not been easy by no means. You were too young to leave this world but I guess God had different plans for you. They same with time it gets easier, I'd like to know how much time cuz after a year it hurts just as much if not worse. Yes my life does have to go on and I'm glad to know you're watching over me and in my heart everyday! You'll always be the love of my life Kevin Duane Glover, and nobody could ever take your place. I just wanna say one more thing before I close this.....you always told me that I'd never be rid of you cause you gave me another one just like you, honey you don't know how accurate you were. Alexis Paige Shene' Glover IS just like you! I love you forever baby!!!!

“ Just wanted to say I finally got your tombstone placed. Its not much but at least it shows you were and still are loved and thought about all the time. You were a wonderful husband and an amazing father (you became a father to Austyn & Alyssa) by choice. You deserve a huge stone made of the best diamonds and 14 karat gold! Last night another one of our friends was called home. Heaven is gonna have all of y'all united again. I love you, Kevin Duane Glover! You hold the fort down in heaven, and i will keep holding the fort down here, until we meet again baby, I'll be blowing kisses toward heaven!

“ almost 6 months have passed by already but I can honestly say time hasn't healed my wound yet! Not a single day goes by that you don't cross my mind. I just had my 42nd birthday without you. I have had several occasions that I had to spend without you by my side! When you passed away you took half of my heart with you! You were my knight and shining armor and I miss you so much more everyday than I thought possible. R.I.P. my dear husband, until we meet again.....Loving and missing you terribly. Your wife, Shelly Rene' Moore Glover

“ My love and prayers are with my family always, but extra helpings these past few days... Shelly I love you dearly, you are my family, my sister... I can not start to tell you how sorry I am for the loss... I have known Kevin for 20 plus years and one thing I do know is that you are the love of his life and all lives.. Those wonderful babies that you all have done so amazing with shows all the love that you all shared as a family.. God sent you to him and him to you... no matter how short time on this earth is, blessed be those who got the chance to encounter Kevin and you as well... You all have been there with me through some very tough times, I love you all so very much... I can hardly believe all the changes we all have went through... Rest assured my angel, you will always have Kevin with you in memory, heart and love.... God calls and then it is time to enter that kingdom, for us and our selfish cries, the pain is great... yet know the difference that being here made for so many and all the love you all spread as a family!!! No amount of words can take all the pain you and your babies feel, but no it is ok not to be ok for a moment.. Shelly you are a strong woman and I am a witness to all of your love and strength, yet now let us all be here for you and take time for you and the process... Kevin you are a wonderful man, husband, father, and friend... rest now and know that those left behind are just moments behind you, and that we all will see you again in Gods kingdom... We shall love and protect and always be there for your legacy, your wonderful family, your life, your love, your everythings.. Thank you for being apart of all of our lives and showing us all how love will conquer... God bless my ole friend and never shall your memory die for our hearts and love for you and your family shall always keep you close... Love you Shelly!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

“ Where do I start at. On July 2/3 2005 u and mom got together at first I was jealous of u Bc I was a mommas boy but so was u so we grew on each other yalls "first date" was taking me to the Adair county fair demo derby for my 7th birthday. On my birthday u got took off probation, got grandmas phone checks and we got the rv (every one laughed at us but it was our pride and joy) we spent the rest of the night turning it in to our "man cave". We have had our us and our downs but we always made up we grew to a tight father-son relationship. U guided me in the right path and taught me how to turn a dime into $100 and taught me to be the man I am today. I thought u was just bein mean when we would get into it but now I know u just wanted me to be the the best I could be. We used to have our man-to-man talks I made u a promise that if something happend to u I would step up and be the man of the house I love u dad and ik ur watching over me guiding me and keeping up with me making sure I'm on the right track
