“ To his best friend & wife , Brenda . To the rest of his loved ones and family members. Larry welcomed me and my husband James into their home as if we were blood kin. Every time we would visit he always made us feel like we knew him forever!! He always had a way of making us laugh and knew how to leave an everlasting impression on you. We send our sincerest condolences during these next few days and pray that God will place his hand upon each and every one of you as you travel through the valley of sorrow with the family. You know Larry wouldn't want sadness he would want to see smiles and hear laughter from all the grand children he always talked about. He certainly loved his family. We sill be thinking of this family and holding them up in prayer. God bless you all!

“ I first met Larry when I was 7yo when my dear sister brought him into our family... My father had alot of respect for him, so he got away with quite alot, but he was always kind to me and I loved him as a brother...I was expecially close to his daughters my dear sweet nieces whom I share a close bond. All my children referred to him as papa Larry..They knew he loved them and felt special in his presence... I will miss your kind spirit... Cynthia K Condry
