“ I am thinking of you and your family today, Lillie. I pray that they will find peace and know that you have found it. We were friends for over 40 years and I miss you so very much. I still catch myself thinking of something I need to tell you next time you drop by. You touched many lives here. You were always there to help wherever help was needed. You are a great loss to those who love you. You will forever be missed. Rest now, my dear friend.
