“ Mary and I are 1 week apart.
She was visiting us in Hardin one summer and I had just got my drivers license. She wanted to drive the car and she immediately backed into a car. I had to tell my Dad I did it. She swore she knew how to drive. (LOL)
The last time I saw her I was in Ohio. Our kids were small. My Trevor and her Natily were about the same age. I have a picture of all the little ones and Trev and Natily were hugging. They were just barely walking.
I sure wish I had made it to that cousin weekend.

“ The last time many of us saw you was when we all gathered for a "COUSIN WEEKEND". I hadn't seen you for at least 40 years. It was so good to have so many first and 2nd cousins together at once. Your hair had turned to white since I had last seen you and it was beautiful. You are going to be so missed by so many. I'm going to miss seeing foe-toes of your Chrisas decorations. Rest in Peace, sweet Mary Lynn
