“ Family, I will never forget spending wonderful time on a hospital floor waiting for surgery! For other people that would've been a long arduous day, but not for Mary, Phillip, PJ, my Matka and husband and me. We made the best of the situation and I learned so much about Mary. Her vivacious spirit and genuine love for people revealed her true nature to me and my family during that time. She only had encouraging and uplifting words to say about everyone! We laughed, we danced, we told bad jokes, and then I learned she was a wrestler! That small little Christian spirit was a wrestler and I couldn't wrap my brains around that! Just another one of her many many wonderful characteristics! I wish I'd have gotten to know her better! Just know PJ and family that you are in my prayers and you will continue to be in my prayers for strength, peace and comfort.
