“Ms. Patricia will forever be loved. She helped shape many students' lives through her career, helping instill the love of reading in me. I well remember and loved her reading to her classroom and she always made me eager to hear “more of the story”. She had wonderful book fairs, helped others feel special by being “library helpers” and had many “children” for sure. She was a great disciplinarian, but not in a mean way, yet more often she always had a great smile and laugh.

My sympathy goes out to her loved ones.
