“ Bob was a hero to our family many times, one in particular was when Jodi and Chris and family needed to get themselves and their belongings from Georgia back home to Mt Comfort, Bob to the rescue! He drove from Texas to Georgia, picked up them and their belongings and brought them home. Duane has many fond and cherished memories, like being sponsored by him at Emmaus and then the two of them returning to cook for Emmaus together, of course costumed with straw hats and accents and all the fun things as only Bob does. With all the fun times that Bob was, nothing compared to his overflowing Love for Jesus Chris, His Wife Deb and his family. The stories could continue..... the memories will, and Bob is eternally with Our Lord, “ don't say goodbye, say, I'll see ya later! Right Sis? Love to all wish we could be there to Hug everyone!!
