“ Shirlene was my cousin on my dad's side. Went to her house in Anderson with my mom, sister and brother. Then she moved to Kentucky and I went with my brother to see her in the nursing home. Glad I got to see her. We all will miss her and miss talking to her. Rest in peace. Love you

“ Shirlene will be truly missed. A very special cousin I enjoyed talking to and visiting. Her and Marlin would join my mom, brother and Friends for coffee in the mornings at first at the mall and when it closed they moved to McDonald's across the street. Missed her when she moved away. Rest in peace now. Loved you.

“ She taught me so much, when I was a child spent many a Sunday in the kitchen watching her cook Sunday dinner. She also took the time to play pitch and catch.
