“ Tony spent a lot of nights with his uncle Jr and his family , my fondest memory of Tony was watching him lay on the couch and our daughter Susan would bring him a stack of books of hers when she was a toddler and lay beside of him and he would read her every one with so much patience ! Our son Adam they talked a lot of baseball him and Tony . He will be missed maybe him and Jr is somewhere up there laughing now about the past !!!

He was a wonderful person, he gave so much, and always wanted to do more for me. He loved hard and i felt it, if he felt good he was ontop of the word , his heart was where his home was and he never got tired of being around me, i want him back, i just do, he was my strength and always had my back, how do i move forward when my life has been taken from me, how????
