“ Whitney you were taken from this world way to soon. Your sisters never stopped looking for you and God and them as well as many other brought you home. You will always be remembered in our county and so many more. Your story made headlines of many news stations around the world. We were all praying for you to be found safe but we're all so very grateful that you can now be laid to rest. Look down and watch over Teresa Lisa Melinda Sarah and you two beautiful girls. You became a part of many of our families. Fly high beautiful girl. You will never be forgotten.

“Finally she can rest in peace. She can soar with the angels! My prayers are with the family during this sad time. Also prayers that the family get the answers they deserve as to what happened to her. I'm glad you got partial closure, hoping in time the rest of the questions will be answered.
